

Feature 1: Main Class is UserCreation its responsibilities are to handle account creation

Critical components:

- Supporting two roles are Customer(the one ordering food) and Restaurant owner.
- Storing user information after it's created
- Validating username and password and updating it.
- Login system

Feature 2: Main Class is RestaurantMenu its responsibility is ensuring correct information about the restaurant are stored inside the system

Critical components:

- Storing restaurant information this menu, location of the restaurant
- Restaurant owners can edit their menu and display its availability.

Feature 4: Main Class is orderManager its responsibility is to handle about customer's order

Critical components:

- Order creation by the customer and correctly storing order information
- Following business rules based on location
- Modification of order by customer and restaurant owner
- Updates on order status
- Canceling orders within certain time

Feature 7: Main Class is paymentHandler its responsibility is validate customer payment

Critical components:

- Validating information of customer's payment method
- Accepting the payment method and Rejecting them

Feature 6: Main Class is priceCalculator its responsibility is calculate total order cost

Critical components:

- Properly handle tax and currency based on location
- Tips system
- Display the right currency (location)

Feature 3: Main Class is menuBrowsing its responsibility filter out restaurant given customer's requested food options

Critical components:

- Query system for customer to choose their order
- Matching customer's searched item to database
- Limiting the restaurant pages to display
- Navigation system for page requested by the customer

Feature 9: Main Class is userReview its responsibility is display review of certain restaurants

Critical components:

- Rating system is 1star-5star review
- Only those that have completed their order can rate
- Calculate the average review from the customers

Feature 8: Main Class is notificationManager its responsibility is notify the customer or restaurant about the order

Critical components:

- Notification of the order place to customer and notify the restaurant about the order
- Notifying the customer of status of their order (Pickup by the courier, delivered, delays, cancellations)
- Notifying issues about the customer's order from the restaurant

Connections

Feature 2 gives information for feature 4 to handle the right order for the customer.

Feature 6 handles the amount deduction so feature 7 can deduce the right amount for customer's valid information.

Feature 7 can validate customer's payment to make feature 4 deny or accept the customer's order

Feature 3 should accurately grab information from feature 2

Feature 9 allows store review to corresponding restaurant (feature 2)

Feature 8 acts as messenger to customer about their order (Feature 4)